

ARIZONA'S ODE.

Sung at the Capitol Building in Phoenix Last Monday Evening.

At the dedication of the capitol building at Phoenix last week a notable feature of the evening's program was the rendition of Arizona's first ode, composed by Mrs. Elsie R. Averill, of the Normal School at Tempe, with music by Mrs. Frank Cox of Phoenix, sister of the author. The legislature is inclined to make it the official ode of the territory. Following is a true copy:

HAIL TO ARIZONA, THE SUN-KISSED LAND!

O, Arizona, sun-kissed land,
Thy day of birth is near at hand:
Upon thy mountains' rugged crest,
Thy native sons still call thee blest;
Within thy valleys' broad domain,
In love, thy foster children reign;
Fair land of gold and sunny peace,
Of flower and vine and rich increase,
Of cloud-kissed hills and wooded wold,
Of countless mines and wealth untold.

CHORUS:

Hail! all hail to Arizona!
Sound her praise from sea to sea!
Land of sun and summer showers,
Land of grain and gold and flowers,
In Columbia's diadem
Of jewels rare thou'lt be the gem,
Hail to Arizona, the sun-kissed land!

Primeval stands thy forest grand,
The ancient Zuni's fatherland:
Thy plain and lofty mountain round
Were many moons his hunting ground,
Unbosomed in thy sun's bright ray
His old ruins slow decay;
Where once the tribes of Ishmael's
band
Marauding wandered o'er the land,
The mighty "Phoenix" rose to fame
From the ashes of destruction's flame.
(Chorus.)

Hoary with age, thou still art young,
Land of renown with praise unsung;
Nature with a master hand
Hath carved thy wondrous Canyon
Grand;
Magician-like her wand she plied,
And lo! thy Forest Petrified;
From craggy peak of Castle Dome,
From Copper Queen to rich Jerome,
She pours her lavish treasure forth
In molten streams of priceless worth.
(Chorus.)

Not all thy riches, glorious land,
Are due alone to Nature's hand,
For man with unremitting toil
Brings forth a bounty from the soil;
From vine-clad hills and limpid streams,
From fruitful vales where plenty teems,
O'er verdant fields he points with pride,
Where flocks and herds are scattered
wide,
To schools where art and skill combine,
To homes in love and truth enshrined.
(Chorus.)

Proud land, thy rock-ribbed hills record
The history of a mighty horde;
The onward trend of centuries old
Hath left its imprint strong and bold
On the hearts and lives of thy brave
sons,
In the winsome grace of thy fairer
ones:
Thy Riders Rough, a valiant band,
With loyal hearts forever stand,
To guard the flag that floats above
Thy homes where reign content and love.
(Chorus.)

The bill to change county seats by a majority vote of the electors of a county is now in the hands of Governor Murphy. The friends of the measure are getting nervous over the governor's delay in signing the measure.

A two hundred and fifty ton Corliss engine arrived this week for the A. C. company's concentrating plant now being constructed at the Lonfellow mine. Another engine of the same capacity will arrive in a short time for the same company's new steel smelter, which will soon be under construction in Clifton.

It is said that Jerry Millay will succeed Judge Ainsworth as Attorney General of Arizona. Jerry Millay is a good man and he will succeed one of the ablest lawyers in Arizona when he assumes his new duties.
